BITES On-line Discussion Guidelines

1. Please respect that this forum is for educational purposes only. Shared knowledge helps us all to learn more.

2. Keep your posts and responses positive and constructive. People are sensitive towards criticism or perceived criticism,

3. Respect other participants. Acknowledge that others are entitled to their own perspectives.

4. Give people the benefit of the doubt if you feel misunderstood. Communicating online is very difficult, and not everyone is able to adequately express themselves in writing.

5. We reserve the right remove individuals from this forum and to delete any inappropriate message or messages not in accordance with these guidelines.
